

Office Supplies & Interiors, IT Consumables and Print for Bionow Premium Members

About HARTS

As a One Nucleus "Preferred Supplier" HARTS are working with the most successful Lifescience Sector companies in the East of England and London, helping them to save time by streamlining their ordering process (Single Sourcing). Saving money on products and services, whilst reducing their administration costs associated with raising a purchase order. All these savings are now being offered to Bionow Premium Members.

HARTS was established in 1836 and is now a leading UK independent dealer providing a "Single Source Solution" for all Bionow Premium members via the One Nucleus Purchasing Consortium. HARTS has built a reputation within One Nucleus over the last 5 years based upon competitive pricing, excellent, fast and professional customer service with a local and National Distribution network in place and a stock holding in excess of £5M of products, all available for next day delivery.
